year month day ()

Dear my favorite weirdo:

Happy (belated) birthday ~! WOOD What a marvelous weekend! Thank you for being patient, understanding, & loving throughout our past 11 months together. We may have had an unusual beginning, & our time together has definitely been out of the norm. But because our love & weirdness make the forces of social norm fruitless, we have pushed through. I am incredibly thankful for you. Even so, there may be times when the distance between us is too wide, when we feel too apart. In effort to fill that gap, in celebration of such a wonderful day, I have begun our first project: Journey (Beta 0.0.1 ver.) Though this site is far from complete, let it become a small hub for us to collect and nourish our ideas, memories, & experiences; a sandbox for us to play, build, & try new things; A haven for when we seek safety & comfort. One of the journeys we will share together as we embark forward. ~ 사랑의 무지개

Sincerely,

Your favorite weirdo
